BUCYRUS SECONDARY SCHOOL TO HOST PARENT-TEACHER CONFERENCES

BUCYRUS, OH (Oct. 26, 2010) – The Bucyrus Secondary School will be holding parent-teacher conferences Nov. 4, from 5-8 p.m. and Nov. 5, from 8-11:00 a.m. As a result, students will not be in session on Nov. 5. Parents interested in scheduling a meeting can do so starting Monday, Nov. 1.

Conferences will be scheduled every 15 minutes and will focus on how the student is progressing in the class as well as recommendations on how the student can improve, if needed. “Parents aren’t required to come,” said Secondary School Principal Kevin Kimmel, “but I highly encourage it.”

Parents are encouraged to call the high school office at (419) 562-7721 or the middle school office at (419) 562-0003 to set up an appointment to meet with their child’s teacher.
